JOY COMES IN THE MORNING!

By Scott Thrasher

We have an “unwritten rule” in our household. You do not ask ole dad for anything after 8 pm. My family claims that I get “grumpy” after that time and am not likely to give the answer they are seeking. Stress, strain and fatigue seem to overpower patience! However, a good night’s rest is an amazing salve. The same question the following morning usually receives a very different answer. Things look a lot different from night unto morning. I’m sure you have also experienced this. The Psalmist expressed this sentiment while illustrating his thanks to God. He did this in a series of antitheses. Notice Psalm 30:4-5:

*“Sing praise to the Lord, you saints of His,
And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.
For His anger is but for a moment,
His favor is for life;
Weeping may endure for a night,
But joy comes in the morning.”*
(Psalm 30:4-5)

Bad times are only temporary and will seem as nothing compared to the good times that await those in Christ. If you are facing difficult times, always remember that morning is just around the corner!
