March 20th, 2022

"Many years ago, I entered the wonderful temple of Christianity. I entered the portico of Genesis and walked down through the Old Testament art gallery where pictures of Adam, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, Joshua, Samuel, David and Daniel hung on the wall. I entered the music room of the songs where the Spirit swept the keyboard of nature and brought forth a dirge like wail of the weeping prophet Jeremiah to the grand impassioned strains of Isaiah until it seemed that every reed, harp and God's great organ of nature responded to the tuneful touch of David, the sweetest singer of Israel. I entered the chapel of Ecclesiastes where the voice of the preacher was heard and passed into the conservatory of Sharon where the lily of the valley, sweet, scented spices filled and perfumed my life. I entered the business office of the Proverbs and passed into the observatory of the prophets where I saw many telescopes of various sizes, some pointing to far off events but all concentrated on the bright and morning star which was soon to rise over the moonlit hills of Judea for our salvation. I then entered the audience room of the King of Kings where I saw the viewpoint of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. I entered the Acts of the Apostles where the Holy Spirit was doing his office work and the formation of the infant church. I entered the correspondence room where sat Paul, Peter, James, Jude and John penning their epistles. I stepped into the throne of Revelation where all towered into glittering peaks I saw the King seated upon His throne (in all His glory) and I heard the host of heaven sing bring forth the royal diadem and crown Him Lord of all!"

(This is a quote from Foy E Wallace's Keynotes of the Scriptures sermon. Brother Wallace used these words to close out that great sermon. He stated the original author of these words remains unknown.)
