Welcome!

July 17th, 2022

“Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.”

(Acts 27:25)

These are the confident and comforting words of the Apostle Paul given to his ship mates on his voyage to Rome. Storms had plagued the journey to the point that the sun and stars were not visible for days. All hope had been seemingly lost. But God sent an angel who told Paul not to fear and that there would be no loss of life. What a remarkable event.

- Can you honestly repeat the words of that verse?
- Do you find comfort in the words of the Bible?
- Do you believe God?
- Can you say “yes” to each of these questions?
