“THE WORD OF GOD -VS- THE WAY OF MAN”

GOSPEL MEETING SPEAKER

Michael Light, and his wife Carrie, have four children, Shelby, Michaela, Dawson and Jackson, and three grand children. They have lived and worked in Bangs, TX for the past twenty-seven years.

Michael directs two camp sessions each summer, and is president of Tullstar (a work specializing in using modern media formats; paired with 40 years of archived material to reach the world with the Gospel).

He has for the past 25 years conducted a thirty-minute weekly radio program in Brownwood each Sunday morning on KOXE FM, and publishes two tracts a quarter.

He was educated at Texas State University (B.A. and M.A.) and The Southwest School of Biblical Studies in Austin, Texas (class of 1991). He has worked on mission campaigns in Jamaica, Tobago, England and Russia. He speaks on various lectureships across the county and conducts several meetings each year. He is also a business man in Brownwood/Bangs area and active community member. Michael also serves as one of the elders for the congregation in Bangs.
